Candēla Bar

Cocktail-inspired candles with a modern edge.

THE FULL-APERTURE DIFFERENCE

Every Candēla Bar candle is poured in a can with a full-aperture end — the entire top opens away rather than a small pour hole — exposing the full wax pool for a bigger, more dramatic burn and stronger shelf presence.

Candēla Bar is our hero collection, drawn from the craft and atmosphere of classic cocktail culture. Each candle is hand-poured into a signature beverage can and built to blend elevated fragrance with unexpected design — the kind of first impression that gets picked up off the shelf.

With packaging that doesn't look like anything else in the category, Candēla Bar gives retailers exceptional shelf presence and a genuinely fresh take on home fragrance.
